

Plenary session: invited ignite talks

Chair: Erzsébet Tóth-Czifra

Author(s)	Title
Fostering access to massive-scale digital resources
1 Ewa Lukasik, Ewa Kuśmierk, Ewa Dahlig-Turek, Jacek Jackowski, Magdalena Chudy, Marcin Werla, and Tomasz Parkola	Developing symbolic and audio data analysis modules for a prototype traditional music repository
2 Athanasios Karasimos, Yorgos Tzedopoulos, Helen Goulis, Eirini Mergoupi-Savaidou, Gerasimos Chrysovitsanos, Athina Iakovidou, Anastasia Falierou, Patrissia Kalafata, Eleni Vernardaki, Maria Spiliotopoulou, and Helen Katsiadakis	The Battleground of Humanities Data: Handling Multidisciplinarity and Diversity
3 Michał Gochna and Grzegorz Myrda	GIS in gathering information from historical sources
4 Marta Lorenzon	Archaeology and open data: a step towards decolonization
Methodological developments in response to data heterogeneity
5 Manuel Alcantara-Pla	Challenges of Digital Data for Linguistics: New Units and Hidden Processes
6 Enrico Daga and Enrico Motta	Finding listening experiences in books
7 Michał Kozak, Jennifer Edmond, and Roberto Theron	PROgressive Visual DEcision-Making in Digital Humanities: Towards Uncertainty Annotation in TEI
8 Agnieszka Kaliszewska, Rafał Bieńkowski, and Monika Syga	How similar, how different? The problems of quantification of similarity in archaeological research- the example of ancient pottery
Research Infrastructures in the service of Digital Humanities and Open Scholarship
9 Jakub Koperwas, Łukasz Kobyliński, and Jolanta Stepniak	The Base of Knowledge in the field of humanities – a new tool to share data and information and to support research management
10 Miriam Baglioni, Alessia Bardi, Paolo Manghi, Pedro Principe, Erzsébet Tóth-Czifra, and André Vieira	The DARIAH-EU and OpenAIRE collaboration on Open Science publishing practices
11 Andrea Scharnhorst, Francesca Morselli, and Jennifer Edmond	Sustainability beyond guidelines
12 Andrea Scharnhorst, Femmy Admiraal, and Dirk Roorda	Visual Analytics of the DARIAH in-kind contributions